About This Content

This is an expansion pack for the free to play game Neon Force Pushers, adding double the amount of stages to the base game. The stages included in this pack are Chaos Labyrinth, Loony Box, Factory Way, and Flip-tronix.

Chaos Labyrinth is a maze of corridors lined with deadly spikes. The stage is frequently rotating 90 degrees left and right, changing the layout of the stage and making you think on your feet, or fall on your head.

Loony Box puts you inside a spinning box with gravity that pulls you to the edges forcing you to fight off your foes while switching from standing on the floor to standing on the wall!... or is that a ceiling?

Factory way places you in a long factory with smashing pistons and speeding conveyor belts. You won't stand still in this level, the walls will push you forward.

In Flip-tronix, you are fighting on the walls and you can use your force push ability to flip the gravity to other side of the stage! However, you musn't let this power go to your head, you must be humble and use it for good... or, you know, use it to send your friends into spikes... Whichever you prefer.
